

PRESS RELEASE

May 11, 1999

Contacts:

Michele Liapes 415-252-2559
Ann Wettrich 415-252-2597

Twenty-two City Youth to Receive Governor's Awards at May 19 Ceremony

Twenty-two San Francisco high school artists have been named California Arts Scholars and will receive Governor's Arts Scholars Medallions at an awards ceremony and reception on Wednesday, May 19, 6:30 to 8:30 p.m., at the Yerba Buena Center for the Arts, 701 Mission Street, in the forum. The ceremony is sponsored by the San Francisco Arts Commission and the Education and Community Program of Yerba Buena Center for the Arts.

The youth will be honored for their acceptance into the prestigious California State Summer School for the Arts. Selected for their outstanding work in the arts, they will take a rigorous pre-professional training program in one or two of several disciplines, including dance, creative writing, visual arts and fine crafts, music, film and video, animation and theater.

The 1999 scholars are Elizabeth Anderson, School of the Arts; Jessamyn Ansary, School of the Arts; David Arnott, St. Ignatius High School; Aya Cash, School of the Arts; Danielle Conover, School of the Arts; Sean Crawford-Marks, School of the Arts; Biko Eisen-Martin, Branson High School; Jesse-tex Feldman, University High School; Victoria Fong, School of the Arts; Samantha Goldfien, University; Jonas Goslow, School of the Arts; Katherine Hushion, School of the Arts; Genessa Keatotha, School of the Arts; Anais Kolvisto, School of the Arts; Alexis Nordling, Urban High School; Jessica Oliver, School of the Arts; Summer Shapiro, School of the Arts; Julia Vanderham, School of the Arts; Caleb Vognsen, University; Laura Vuksinich, School of the Arts; Lauren Wong, School of the Arts; Nyssa Zinn, University.