QWOCMAP & SFWAR

Life Healing Project for Young LGBTQ Women of Color

Are you tired of seeing violence against young LGBTQ women? Are you ready for community-led healing and change?
Ever wanted the chance to share your story through film?

Come join a community of young LGBTQ Women of Color, between the ages of 16-24, as we explore why young LGBTQ women face high rates of violence and create ways to fight back! Because our stories are so often silenced, ignored, or erased we must come together to learn from one another, heal, and tell our stories.

The QWOCMAP-SFWAR Life Healing Project combines FREE intensive learning circles and artistic film training to explore how we struggle, survive, and thrive as LGBTQ women of color.

Queer Women of Color Media Arts Project (QWOCMAP) creates, exhibits and distributes new films that authentically reflect the lives of queer women of color (cis & trans*), gender nonconforming and transgender people of color, and the vital, intersecting social justice issues that concern our multiple communities on the leading edge of change.

San Francisco Women Against Rape (SFWAR) is a women of color-led, community-based, social justice organization. We provide support to sexual assault survivors, their families, and communities, and use education and community organizing as tools of prevention. We believe that ending all forms of oppression is integral to ending sexual assault and prioritize working with and for communities facing multiple forms of violence and oppression.

All Life Healing Project Sessions will be held at:
The SF Women's Building
3543 18th Street (@ Valencia)
SF, CA 94110
